Your position as a docent/volunteer:

You will be trained to give tours educating people about the houses and structures in Heritage Square, including the architecture and the history of Oxnard and how the houses relate to the city's rich pioneer roots. You will work with a Mentor Docent and shadow tours. You will be provided with a docent manual with background information, tour route and architectural backgrounds. Docents and volunteers are needed for the Saturday tour program, school tours, staffing special events such as community concerts or informational tables at various festivals, to create historical exhibits, conduct historical research and help interpret the importance of the Heritage Square houses as they relate to Oxnard's early history.
